Thoughts of the Pastor:

Meditation on Earth Day

In the beginning God made the heavens and the earth. A quick read through the opening chapters of Genesis reveal that God loves creation. At each day in chapter one God declares "It is good!" Then in chapter 2, God puts the first human in charge of tilling the garden.

Creation is a glorious gift from God that we are called to take care of. This idea was even expressed in the laws God gave Moses. Every 7 years the land was to lie fallow (Lev. 25:1-7). Modern agriculture recognizes that over using the soil can wear it out. Today we rotate crops to prevent soil depletion. Just as the ancient Israelites cared for the land and as modern farmers do the same, we as Christians are called to take care of God's creation. Praise God this Earth Day for the gift of the good Earth.

If you did not give your name to your Circle, please drop an envelope in the big wooden box in the front office. It must have your name, how many you are paying for, and cash or a check made payable to AUMW. (You do not have to be in a Circle to attend though.) The deadline is April 24.

This deadline is also April 24.

PROGRAM: The program will be presented by the Riverside High Speech and Debate Team.
